

Town Pays Tribute To Dead With Parade And Ceremonies

New Flagpole Dedicated At Memorial Day Exercises

Peace and safety for the nation, guaranteed by military strength, ample assistance to Europe and a purging of communist agents, was the common theme of Memorial Day services at the churches, monuments and memorials where hundreds of people rallied on the holiday in solemn tribute to their dead of all wars.

On Memorial Day itself, one of the largest turnouts in years, at the parade, at the exercises and at the cemeteries, climaxed by the beautiful floral offerings laid on the graves of the beloved dead, dedicated itself to the cause of bringing peace out of the present world chaos. From the graves of our Revolutionary ancestors in Lexington, Concord and Arlington, to the new graves of those heroes whose bodies recently arrived for re-burial in their home soil, groups from all walks and stations of life, united in a solemn tribute.

Highlighting the Town of Arlington observances of Memorial Day, was the dedication of a new flagpole at the World War Veterans lot in Mount Pleasant cemetery following the Memorial Day parade, last Monday morning. The principal speaker at the dedication was Joseph Peterson, chairman of the Arlington Board of Selectmen and veteran of World War One. Rev. Justin, C. Durocher, World War Two chaplain, gave the invocation. The Memorial Day parade started on Broadway at ten o'clock and proceeded to the World War plot in Mount Pleasant cemetery for the ceremonies. The parade was reviewed by the members of the Arlington Board of Selectmen at Medford and Chestnut streets, proceeding to Mystic street and then to the cemetery.

JOHN HENRY SHEA GIVES TIMELY TALK AT JR. HIGH WEST

"That we might learn to live as bravely as they died,"—commemorative words recently spoken by General Omar Bradley—furnished the keynote of an inspiring address delivered by John Henry Shea, of 48 Lombard Terrace, representing Arlington Post, 39, American Legion, to more than 600 pupils of Junior High School West last Tuesday.

The belated Memorial Day exercises, postponed from last Friday because of inclement weather, were staged outdoors at the permanent memorial shrine dedicated to departed servicemen who were formerly pupils at that school.

The assembly program was under the capable supervision of Miss Mildred Emerson of the faculty. Robert Regut, president of grade IX read a paper entitled, "The Origin of Memorial Day." Grade VII glee club furnished appropriate selections, and the Junior High West band, under the guidance of Augustus Mazzocca, contributed to the musical portion of the program.

Comrad Shea exhorted his youthful listeners to learn well the principles of democracy and to think constantly of those goals needed by all true Americans. Tolerance, understanding, sound education, careful preparation for life, sportsmanship and patriotism were named as stepping stones to developing the real appreciation of being an American.

Peirce And Winn Case Up For Trial June 20

The case of the Peirce and Winn property, located on Mystic street, Arlington, which was recently taken by the Town of Arlington by right of eminent domain to make room for a public auto parking lot in Arlington's shopping centre, has been set for trial on June 20th, in the Middlesex Superior Court.

The Town of Arlington is the defendant in the petition for the assessment of damages brought by Lillian Y. Rubin, of Boston, owner of the abandoned coal yard, at the time the property was taken by the town. With the approval of the Board of Selectmen, Town Counsel Russell T. Hamlet, has engaged attorney Nathan Bidwell to assist in defending the town. Although taken by the town on July 16, 1946, 3 years ago, the Peirce and Winn Company had remained on the property and the actual price which the town will be obliged to pay for the property has not yet been determined, pending the outcome of the trial. The taking was made on the basis of $50,000 as the purchase price, which offer was rejected. The price which the town will be obliged to pay for the property will now be determined by a jury which will hear the case.

In order to serve the best interests of the Town of Arlington in the recent controversy between the Robert W. Fawcett, of the Robert Fawcett and Sons Company and to fully explain the position taken by chairman John P. Morine of the Arlington School committee, in defending the action of his Board, we give herewith full text of the communication received by THE PRESS, being a copy of the protest made by the Fawcett interests under date of May 26, 1949 in the awarding of the heating contracts.

To School Committee of the Town of Arlington

"The Robert Fawcett & Son Company Inc. has been engaged in the fuel business in Cambridge for almost one-half a century. During that time, we have been invited to bid by various cities and towns in greater Boston on proposals for the supply of fuel. It has been almost a uniform practice of cities and towns to award the contract to the low bidder. If such were not the case, a city or town would soon find itself in the position of having no reliable companies bidding because, of course, if reliable companies find that the contractor is actually selected before the bidding, reliable companies will not bid. Such a situation results in the more costly purchase of fuel in every city and town where it occurs and we think that it will shortly happen in the Town of Arlington.

"This company in response to proposals for the furnishing of anthracite coal, bituminous coal, and No. 2 fuel oil from the Arlington School Committee submitted bids believing in good faith that the successful bidder would be the low bidder. The result of the bidding in which the following companies participated:—Hayes Oil, Kelly Oil, Robert Fawcett & Son Company, Peirce & Winn Company, Metropolitan Coal Company and Thomas Walsh & Sons Inc. were the bidders, was, that on anthracite coal the Robert Fawcett & Son Company was the low bidder, on bituminous coal the Robert Fawcett & Son Company was the low bidder, and on No. 2 oil the

Robert Fawcett & Son Company was the low bidder.

"It is, therefore, of considerable interest to the fuel trade and ought to be of considerable interest to the people of Arlington that the School Committee has informed us that they have awarded the contract for anthracite coal to Thomas Walsh & Sons Company and that the contract on bituminous coal will be awarded to the Metropolitan Coal Company. The Contract on fuel oil will be awarded to the Kelly Oil Company. Such a procedure certainly discourages honest competition so far as fuel for the Arlington schools is concerned.

"We protest the award of these contracts by the School Committee and request that the School Committee grant a public hearing on the subject of these awards and before the public hearing supply us and the other unsuccessful bidders with a statement of the reasons why the contracts were not awarded to the low bidder. In fairness to the Board of Selectmen of the Town of Arlington whom we fear might be confused with this unsavory picture, we wish to publicly state that it has been and is the policy of the Board of Selectmen to make such awards to the lowest bidder."

Yours truly,
(Signed) Robert W. Fawcett

OWN A FLAG

President Truman's appeal to the public to fly the flag from their homes on Flag Day, which comes on Tuesday, June 14, should meet with the most widespread response.

Actually, many homes are without the American Flag today.

Flown almost continuously during the war years, the flag became torn by the elements in many cases and was done away with when it was no longer presentable in good condition.

Every family, we think, should own a flag. It should be a matter of pride and patriotism to fly it on Memorial Day. Then there is Bunker Hill Day and the Grand and Glorious Fourth of July.

In driving about the countryside, we find too few home owners have been displaying the colors since the end of World War Two.

We deem it the duty of every home to own a flag and to fly it on all special occasions as a mark of respect and devotion to our country.

Forty Thousand Men Expected To Attend World Peace Event

"The Holy Hour and Living Rosary for World Peace" sponsored by the Archdiocesan Union of Holy Name Societies will be held on Sunday evening, June 5 at Fenway Park. 40,000 men, from all parts of the Archdiocese, are expected to gather at this event, presided over by His Excellency, the Most Reverend Richard J. Cushing, D.D., Archbishop of Boston, who will preach the sermon on the occasion. His Excellency, the Most Reverend John Wright, D.D. will be the celebrant of Benediction.

A preliminary concert by the newly formed combined Holy Name Choral Society and Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Dominic DeGrazia, will begin at 7:30.

1,000 priests, brothers, and seminarians led by an Honor Guard of over 200 Fourth Degree K. of C. will form the procession to the large Altar erected in center field. The Holy Hour itself will begin at 8:30 p.m., after the Blessed Sacrament has been escorted to the Altar by a large group of Altar boys from St. John's church, North Cambridge.

New this year, as a part of the ceremony of the Holy Hour, will be the "Living Rosary" carried out by 1752 Holy Name men representing every portion of the Archdiocese who will assemble in the form of a huge rosary and each will carry a flashlight of red, green, or of gold.

As the recitation of the Rosary continues the flashlights representing the cross and each bead will be lighted progressively. At the beginning of each decade a short meditation will be read by Rev. Walter Flaherty of St. Patrick's, Cambridge while simultaneously on another part of the field a silent enactment of each of the Glorious Mysteries will be produced on an elevated platform by the members of the Boston Catholic Theatre, under the direction of Mr. Edward O'Donnell of Woburn. The entire proceedings of the "Living Rosary" is being put into operation by Mr. Robert E. Mansmann of Marlboro, with the Rev. Thomas F. Carey, Ass't. National Director, as advisor.

The customary hymns and recitations of the Holy Name Pledge will be participated in by the entire congregation of men. The Pledge will be led by Very Rev. Harry C. Graham, National Director. In the event if inclement weather due announcement will be made over the radio station WNAC and the Yankee Network on Sunday afternoon of the postponement until Monday night June 6.

A staff of over 500 ushers, all Holy Name members, are being trained for the occasion. Over 200 disabled veterans, as well as the members of the Holy Name Speakers' Bureau, will be the guests of honor on this occasion. Through parishes and schools the Holy Name Society has sought to encourage every person in the Archdiocese to say the Rosary on Sunday, June 5, for the cause of "World Peace" which is to be the theme of the "Holy Hour." In this way it is estimated that almost one million Rosaries will be offered for this intention and a box containing the Rosary pledges of over 500 parishes and schools will be placed at the Altar during the recitation of the Rosary.

Eaton Warns Of Health Dangers

A Winchester man warned today that millions of Americans actually are in danger of jeopardizing their health "because they are NOT buying wisely while trying to stay within their budgets."

Paul B. Eaton of 40 Englewood Road, Winchester, Chairman of Massachusetts' June Dairy Month

Committee, acknowledged in a statement that staying within a person's income is a hard job.

But, he added, "you can stay within it, and still give your family a sound and wholesome diet, if you include a basic amount of milk and other dairy foods in your daily meals."

Though food prices are declining to some extent, Eaton said, they still are between 100 and 200 per cent higher than pre-war levels.

Eaton who is advertising manager of H. P. Hood & Sons said June Dairy Month is observed each year on behalf of the 10,000,000 Americans who are dependent upon the dairy industry for their livelihood.

June Dairy Month, he said, also "is directed toward the improvement of public health."

Announce Engagement

At a recent family get-together, Mr. and Mrs. Basile Guiliano, of 3 Fairview avenue, South Braintree, announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Rose, to Mr. Alfred Leonard Sorrentino, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Sorrentino, of 51 Walnut street, Arlington.

The bride to be is a graduate of the Braintree High school and is employed in the offices of the United Shoe Machinery Corp. of Boston. Her fiancé is a graduate of the Arlington high school and of Burdett College. He saw service during the recent World War in France, Germany, Belgium, Luxembourg and Austria. He is also employed by the United Shoe Machinery Corp. of Boston. A fall wedding is planned.

Chairmen Ask Workers To Make Every Effort To Put Drive Over

The success of the Symmes Arlington Hospital $300,000 building fund depends in large measure on an energetic public campaign, more than 200 volunteers were told at the opening dinner of this final phase of the program Wednesday night by James J. Golden, public campaign chairman for Arlington.

Ernest W. Davis, chairman of the fund and president of the hospital's board of trustees, who presided at the meeting, announced that the present standing of the fund is $124,728. He urged both the workers in the public campaign and the members of the three major committees also active to put forth every effort during the final two weeks of the project.

During the public campaign, the 400 volunteers will call upon the general public and explain how a contribution to Symmes Arlington should view it as a friendly and neighborly act, whereby one citizen cheerfully explained to another how much the enlarged hospital affected his interests.

He echoed Mr. Golden in pointing out that every volunteer was working for a better and safer community in which the benefits of adequate hospital care are equally enjoyed and equally supported.

The fund's total included reports from three major committees which have been active since the enlargement program was inaugurated in February. All three chairmen emphasized that they did not consider the work of their committees finished, but expected to gain new impetus from the activities of the public campaign during the final days of the project.

Reporting for the memorial gifts committee, Roscoe O. Elliott, chairman, explained that under the memorial plan subscribers wishing to make a sizable contribution to Symmes Arlington hospital, might give units or parts of the enlarged hospital for the benefit of the community rather than in terms of money. He reported that to date his committee had 88 subscriptions amounting to $91,520.

Walter T. Chamberlain, Arlington chairman of the special gifts committee, whose organization seeks subscriptions of intermediate size—usually larger than might be expected from the public campaign but not sufficient to establish memorial units, said that the committee had assembled 173 subscriptions totaling $24,633.

John Wanamaker, chairman of the business and mercantile committee, told the gathering that his group, organized to call on business and commercial houses in Arlington, had been active only two weeks and expected to do its

SAVED REAL MONEY ON LAST YEAR'S COAL BILL... WILL DO IT AGAIN!

Yes, many local families realized a nice saving last year by buying on the 'blue coal' Budget Plan. When prices jumped, it didn't bother them. Their bins were already filled—paid for in small monthly amounts. It's as convenient as paying electric or telephone bills. And it's so easy, too—you choose your own terms. There's no red tape. Phone us today for complete information about this easier way to buy coal.

Morine, of the Arlington School committee has stated that the largest amount of fuel bought by the school committee for public school use, is soft coal, while the amount of fuel used, is about equivalent to the amount used in a home of average size. He stated that the only oil heated building in the entire Arlington school system, is the headquarters of the school department, on Maple street, which is a converted dwelling house.

According to Chairman Morine the Fawcett price for soft coal per ton was given as $12.48, while the price given by the Metropolitan Coal Company, which company was awarded the contract, was bid $12.86, a difference of 38 cents per ton. The specifications as submitted by the various bidders themselves, according to Chairman Morine, showed that while the Fawcett bid was the lowest, the ash content of the soft coal which it offered, is somewhat higher than that offered by the Metropolitan Coal Company, while the BTU of the latter company is higher.

The coal furnished by the Metropolitan Coal Company during the past years has always been found most satisfactory by the School Department, and Mr. Morine is of the opinion that taking all factors into consideration, including that of price, the attitude of the school committee in awarding the contract to the Metropolitan Company, is fully justified, and will serve the best interests of the Town of Arlington.

Who said so? And why are they the most wonderful tires ever built?

For more than two years these great tires have dominated the automotive scene, written themselves into the design of the newer motor cars, fixed themselves in the enthusiasm of countless thousands of motorists.

What is all this? What's going on? Why should a couple of new tires create such a startling revolution? Why were they followed by a host of imitations - why were they never successfully equalled or duplicated?

Yet here they are - just a couple of nice looking tires. What's inside of them? What do they do that other tires won't do? Why should you prefer them, insist on them, buy them? Why do millions insist on them and buy them?

The answers are very simple

The answer starts with the simple fact that they are the exclusive and original U. S. Royal "Air Ride" tires. They take more air than ever before because there's more air room inside them - yet they ride you and cushion you on less air pressure. That's point number one.

Point number two is that they steer magnificently, easier than former tires, because their treads were especially designed for steering. Their treads are for sure and easy steering as well as safety.

Point number three is that by combining lower air pressure and faultless steering you get a tire that provides complete vehicle control around the turns, in parking maneuvers, on the straight-a-way at any speed - yet they are tires that also ABSORB THE ROAD. They cushion you and your vehicle from every shock and discomfort. They are tires that pave their own highways as they go along.

The difference between them

What's the difference between these two U. S. Royal tires? The difference is quantity. You get a bigger tire in the Royal Master, one with much deeper tread rubber; one whose traction and stopping tread may be renewed by regrooving time and time again. And the U. S. Royal Master costs more because it's a bigger tire with a proportionately greater capacity and span of life. Both tires are the finest net value in the world.

They are not luxury tires. They are not cut-price tires. They are pure value - the greatest value in tire history.

The tires that revolutionized automotive riding and driving

1. The tires that perform with more air and less air pressure
2. The tires that absorb the road they travel on
3. The tires that fully cushion every shock and road strain
4. The tires that radically influenced modern automotive engineering and design
5. The tires that have been copied and imitated but neither equalled or duplicated
6. The only tires of low air pressure with especially designed steering tread
7. The tires without any excess (lazy) rubber - run cooler and, therefore, wear much longer
8. The tires exactly designed to fit your present wheels
9. The tires chosen as original equipment on the finest of the new cars
10. The tires that make old cars feel like new
11. The tires that pay for themselves in pleasure, protection and long wear

These are the tires whose revolutionary qualities and sensational performance established today's highest standards of riding and driving comfort, safety and economy. Sold by U. S. Royal Dealers everywhere at fair and stable prices representing the highest tire value in the world. You may act with complete confidence on these facts today or any day.
